

MASSEY AREA MUSEUM
36TH ANNUAL JESSIE BURNSIDE MEMORIAL ART SHOW & SALE
August 3rd – 31st, 2019

ART SHOW POLICIES

- Art entered in the art show will be grouped into the following twelve (12) categories:
- Oil paintings - Pastel Art
- Sketches - Digitally Enhanced Photography
- Acrylic Paintings - Digital Art
- Mixed Media - 3-Dimensional Art
- Watercolour Paintings - Art by Young Artists (8 years and under)
- Photography - Art by Young Artists (9-16 years)
- All art should be brought into the museum between July 20th and July 27th.
- Because of limited gallery space, artwork displayed on wall must not exceed (784 square inches/ 1991.4 square centimeters.) These dimensions include the frame.
- Artwork must be mounted and wired for framing.
- Artwork that has been shown in previous Jessie Burnside Memorial Art shows will not be accepted.
- All artwork must be original. Neither kits nor numbered prints will be accepted.
- Paintings that have not been painted on a flat surface, such as paper, Masonite or canvas, will be considered 3-dimensional art.
- Enhanced Photography is for photographs that have been digitally altered, filtered or collaged. If the subjects matter is no longer recognizable as photograph, please enter it into the Digital Art category; this is for all artwork created with the help of a computer.
- Judging of art is done throughout the duration of the show by public vote and ribbons and prizes will be awarded accordingly. Voting ceases at noon on Friday, August 30th,
- For those who wish to have their artwork sold, the Massey Area Museum will sell it for a commission of 20%. Artists may collect money for sold art after payment has been received by the museum.
- All entries MUST remain hanging until 4:00 pm on the final day of the show, August 31st.
- All unsold art may be picked up during museum operating hours from Sept. 3rd to Sept. 6th.
- All artists entering the Jessie Burnside Memorial Art Show must agree to follow policies.
